Required Text and Materials: A journal and folder for compiling all exercises and in-class and out-of-class assignments. You will be responsible for photocopying and distributing copies of your workshop stories to each of your classmates.

Electronic Readings: You will be required to sign on to UM Online and read stories and/or essays. Be prepared to print these readings to bring to class.

Required Software: Adobe Reader.

Course Objectives:
CRWR 310 is an intermediate fiction writing class. We will focus on the craft of fiction writing and the components required for a successful short story. We will read, discuss, and respond to a variety of published stories and craft-based essays, but the primary emphasis throughout the semester will be analysis and discussion of student work. You will be expected to complete three substantial works of fiction during the semester in addition to workshop responses and exercises. You will be responsible for carefully reading the work of your peers and responding both in classroom discussion (workshop) and with typed comments.

Course Requirements:
- Writing Exercises: All writing exercises will be turned in on the date due and must be typed and double-spaced with one-inch margins. Exercises will focus on one component of a story or be of a specified length. Keep these in your portfolio upon return.
- Journal: I expect you to keep a journal of dialogue bits, story ideas, brilliant insights, complaints, whatever you desire. Although I will not ask you to turn in these journals, I will occasionally ask for a typed excerpt (one page or less) of your collected wisdom.
- Major Assignments (stories): You will produce three works of fiction over the course of this semester.
Grading/Evaluation:
You will be graded on your active participation in class, your writing exercises, your improvement from draft to revision, and your attendance. DO NOT MISS MORE THAN TWO (2) CLASSES OR YOUR GRADE WILL BE AFFECTED

- 40% of your grade is based on active participation. Show up prepared, comment on readings and the work of your peers, and contribute to the community of the classroom.
- 30% of your grade is based on successful completion of all writing assignments (including peer responses). Turn these exercises in on time, put some thought and effort into the work, and type and double-space all out-of-class work. You will receive credit for exercises, but not a letter grade.
- 30% of your grade is based on your fiction portfolio. All major works must be substantially revised by the end of the semester. Demonstrate improvement and the ability to effectively respond to criticism.

All work submitted in this course must be your own and be written exclusively for this course. All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php

Students with Disabilities
Qualified students with disabilities will receive appropriate accommodations in this course. Please speak with me privately after class or in my office. Please be prepared to provide a letter from your DSS Coordinator.

Some other Matter:
It is important that our classroom develop into a community of writers. You must be able to provide and accept criticism and feedback in a positive manner. I will be available during my office hours to meet with you and will also schedule individual and group conferences by appointment.

Missoula is a vibrant literary community. Although not required, I suggest you take advantage of readings, conferences, and gatherings occurring this semester. I will announce upcoming events, but keep in mind the Second Wind Reading Series each Sunday night. Readings are frequently held on campus and at local bookstores. The Montana Book Festival will take place September 20-25 at various venues throughout Missoula. The majority of Festival events are free and open to the public. This is a great opportunity to see and hear a wide variety of writers from multiple genres. http://www.montanabookfestival.org/

A Few Words to Ponder on Writing and the Short Story:

“A whole lifetime must be crowded into a few minutes.” Frank O’Connor

“Isak Dinesen said that she wrote a little every day, without hope and without despair. I like that.” Raymond Carver

Writer’s block is a misnomer. What is called writer's block is almost always ordinary fear.” Tom Wolfe

“If we had to say what writing is, we would define it essentially as an act of courage.” Cynthia Ozick

”There is so much about the process of writing that is mysterious to me, but this one thing I’ve found to be true: writing begets writings.” Dorianne Laux

“Making people believe the unbelievable is no trick; it’s work. ... Belief and reader absorption come in the details: An overturned tricycle in the gutter of an abandoned neighborhood can stand for everything.” Stephen King

“I think that we live in a time where it's easier to be suspicious of dedicated men and women, people dedicated to their craft, because the world around them inspires them to be lazy. It inspires them to be negative. It inspires them to be snarky.” Ryan Adams
