COURSE DESCRIPTION
We will learn about our students’ growth and our teaching practices through informal and formal assessment. In this course, we will explore many forms of assessment and investigate the portfolio as an assessment strategy that aligns standards, curriculum, and instruction. We will use the Common Core State Standards, the Montana Common Core Standards, and the NCTE/IRA Standards for English Language Arts to examine student accomplishment, and the National Board of Professional Teaching Standards to portray teacher accomplishment. By working with student and teacher portfolios, we will discover the importance of standards, the role of different types of assessments, and reflection and metacognition in assessment.

This course embodies the UM College of Education’s Professional Behaviors and Dispositions of diversity, equity, fairness, and personal integrity as well as the College’s Conceptual Framework through the 3 essential elements of learning communities: Integration of Ideas, Cooperative Endeavors, and Respect for Individual Worth.

This course also addresses the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS)—Early Adolescence through Young Adulthood/English Language Arts (EAYA/ELA) Standards (2014):

1. Standard I: Knowledge of Students: Accomplished English language arts teachers acquire knowledge about their students to advance students’ learning in the English language arts and to prepare students for successful participation in the world.

2. Standard II: Fairness, Equity, and Diversity: Accomplished English language arts teachers practice fairness and equity because of their commitment to the acceptance and appreciation of others. Accomplished teachers use a variety of strategies and materials to address disparities among students and provide meaningful learning opportunities that meet the diverse needs of all learners.

3. Standard III: Learning Environment: Using their understanding of the ways in which physical and relational factors combine in the classroom, accomplished English language arts teachers purposefully design inclusive learning environments that engage, challenge, and support student learning.

4. Standard IV: Instructional Design and Implementation: Accomplished English language arts teachers use their knowledge of students, their discipline, and pedagogy to design and implement instruction that promotes the learning of all students.

5. Standard V: Reading and Viewing: Accomplished English language arts teachers engage their students in reading and viewing a wide range of texts. Teachers support all students in developing the dispositions and proficiencies necessary for comprehending, analyzing, evaluating, and appreciating the texts.

6. Standard VI: Writing and Producing: Accomplished English language arts teachers provide instruction in the processes, skills, and knowledge about writing that their students will need to effectively produce a variety of texts for a range of audiences and purposes.

7. Standard VII: Speaking and Listening: Accomplished English language arts teachers equip students to become effective communicators by strengthening their speaking and listening skills for various purposes within a broad range of contexts.

8. Standard VIII: Language Study: Accomplished English language arts teachers develop their students’ appreciation of the functional and aesthetic aspects of language and expand their students’ capacity to use language effectively.

9. Standard IX: Inquiry: Through inquiry, accomplished English language arts teachers foster dispositions in students to examine multiple perspectives; promote a process that prompts students to ask critical questions; encourage students to act on what they have learned; and equip students with the tools needed to examine, organize, manage, and analyze information.

10. Standard X: Assessment: Accomplished English language arts teachers create and select valid assessment tools as part of an ongoing process of monitoring and evaluating student learning. Teachers use assessment results to provide meaningful feedback to students, engage students in self-assessment, shape instructional decisions, and communicate to various stakeholders.
