Goals

The purpose of the Colloquium is to give graduate students a wider understanding of the professional side of philosophy, of the current issues, the different schools of thought, the leading figures, the conceptions the profession has of itself, and of the profession's relations to contemporary society and culture.

Requirements

The requirements are attendance of the Philosophy Forum on Mondays, 3:00-4:30 PM and of the Colloquium, skilled participation in the Colloquium discussions, and intelligent reading of the assigned texts. Participation in the Forum discussions is strongly encouraged.

Times and Places

The Forums will take place on Mondays, 3:00-4:30 PM in the Gallagher Business Building Room 123 when the Forum cosponsors the Student-Faculty Seminar of the President's Lecture Series and in the Pope Room of the Law School otherwise, unless another time and location is indicated on the Forum announcement.

Disability Modifications

The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with Disability Services, please contact Disability Services in Lommasson Center 154 or call 406.243.2243. I will work with you and Disability Services to provide an appropriate modification. If you have a disability, please let me know so we can provide accommodations.
