Course Description:

This class offers intensive study of María de Zayas’s Exemplary and Amorous Novels (1637) and The Disenchantments of Love (1647). At the height of Zayas’s popularity in the mid-eighteenth century, the number of editions of her work was exceeded only by the novels of Cervantes. But by the end of the nineteenth century, Zayas had been excluded from the Spanish literary canon because of her gender and the sociopolitical changes that swept Spain and Europe. Both of her collections of stories are about women’s amorous experiences in a patriarchal and imperialist society and feature Zayas’s signature topics—gender equality and domestic violence.

Required Texts:

*Additional material in Moodle

Requirements/Student Assessment:

Attendance/Active Participation/Summaries* 20%

3 Take-home assignments  50%

Final paper 30%

To help the Spanish Section with the planning of future course offerings we require that all students fill out this survey the first week of classes:
*Class Participation: Attendance is required: there is a maximum of two unexplained absences (use them wisely). Any additional absence will lower your grade by 2%. A satisfactory participation grade assumes that you come to class each day prepared and ready to engage in the discussions. Students must read the primary texts and the secondary sources. Students must summarize at least FOUR of the scholarly articles. Summaries, which are 1-2 pages long, must identify the main point(s) of the article (as well as supporting ideas and evidence) and show adequate critical comprehension of the material.

 3 Short papers of 4-5 pages. They require a close reading (Explication de texte) of specific passages or a short essay about a topic provided by the instructor (in the latter case, I will assign the topic a week in advance). You must follow the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers guidelines on the physical format of the paper and on the way of documenting print and electronic sources. Failure to do this will lower your grade by 5 points. Papers are due at the beginning of the class period, they must be submitted in print and they must be delivered in person.

 Final paper. 8-10 pages. You must follow the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers guidelines on the physical format of the paper and on the way of documenting print and electronic sources. Failure to do this will lower your grade by 5 points. Final papers are due on Tuesday December 11th.
