Course Description<sup>1</sup>

In this course we will study the linguistic sound system of Spanish, contrasting parts of this system with the sounds of English. So, in this class you will be challenged to improve your Spanish pronunciation and to learn the technical terminology and symbols that we use to describe the sounds of a language.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course you will be able to:

1. Describe the Spanish sound system (e.g. vowels, consonants, stress patterns).
2. Transcribe isolated words and phrases using the symbols of the International Phonetic Alphabet.
3. Identify which parts of the sound system of Spanish are the most difficult for speakers of English and explain why.
4. Define basic theoretical concepts of the sound system of any language (front vowel, fricative, etc.)
5. Identify and explain in your own words some topics of Spanish dialectology and sociolinguistics.

Materials

1. Schwegler, Kempff & Ameal-Guerra (2010). Fonética y Fonología Españolas 4th Edition. Wiley & Sons.

Course Requirements and Grading

In this class we will be using a point system. This means that for each assignment you will receive points. You can easily predict the performance on the course as the semester unfolds by adding up the points you have so far and compare that to the table below:

Grading scale

Letter grade	Points	Letter grade	Points
A	93-100	C	73-76
A-	90-92	C-	70-72
B+	87-89	D+	67-69
B	83-86	D	63-66
B-	80-82	D-	60-62
C+	77-79	F	0-59

Now, let's see which are the graded assignments and requirements:

- Recording Project (25 points of final grade): Students will complete a recording project to track their progress. In addition to voice recordings, the project includes two written analyses, which must demonstrate the ability to apply technical knowledge covered in class to analyses of speech. See document 'Recording Project' for further details.
  - a) STEP 1: Grabación (5 points of final grade): September 5th
  - b) STEP 2: Grabación + Ensayo_Las vocales (10 points of final grade): September 24th
  - c) STEP 3: Grabación + Ensayo_Las consonantes (10 points of final grade): November 7th
- Exams (40 points of final grade): If you have to miss an exam (only in case of serious emergencies, for which you must provide documentation), you must call/email in advance so as to reschedule the exam. Make-up exams will be essay-based, whereas in-class exams will include various types of questions (multiple choice, fill-ins, etc.).
  - a) Midterm (20 points of final grade): October 10th
  - b) Final exam (20 points of final grade): Date/ Time TBD
- Quizzes (20 points of final grade): There will be 4 quizzes (5pts. each). If you need to miss one due to a valid reason, make sure to let me know via email or in person in advance. If you miss one due to an emergency, contact me as soon as possible.
  - a) Quiz 1 (5 points of final grade): September 17th
  - b) Quiz 2 (5 points of final grade): October 3rd
  - c) Quiz 3 (5 points of final grade): October 31st
  - d) Quiz 4 (5 points of final grade): December 3rd
- Active class participation and preparation (15 points of final grade): Your participation is key to the success of this course. Your grade will be calculated as follows:

a) Spot Quizzes (10 points)

This part of your grade is based on your faithfulness to the reading assignments, your preparation for class and the attention you pay in class. At the beginning or end of many classes, you will be asked to answer brief questions or complete a short activity related to the reading or the topic we have been discussing in class. If you have carefully read the assignment and prepared for class by reviewing relevant class notes, it will not be difficult to receive good grades on these quizzes. These assignments are meant to help both you and me know how well you are grasping the material. You cannot makeup these assignments or take them later in a class period if you leave class early or arrive late. Spot quizzes will be graded as Pass/Fail.

b) Quality of in-class participation (5 points)

This part of your participation grade is based on the quality of daily in-class participation, an important component of this course. In order to receive full credit in this area, students must regularly demonstrate knowledge of the readings by answering questions in class, consistently participate in in-class activities and discussions in a way that shows unwavering focus and dedication, and refrain from distracting, disrespectful, or otherwise objectionable behaviors (like using a cell phone).

- Extra credit: There will be five extra credit points in this class assigned in an all or nothing way. In order to receive them, you need to engage in four of the several opportunities that Spanish section will provide in order to create communities of learners and/or outreach projects. In each instance, your instructor (or designated person from the Dept) will stamp your card. All opportunities have to be approved by the instructor in advance. At the end of the semester, if you completed your card with 4 community building activities, you'll submit it to your instructor to receive 5 extra points.

- "Sunday streets"
- "Español y Mate"
- Activities by the Club de Español
- Other opportunities created by your instructor

Other Policies and Information

E-mail/Companion site/Moodle: All students must frequently access their email, the student companion site to the textbook, & our Moodle site. What kind of technical assistance is available for students?

- UOnline Help Desk: 406-243-4999, 1-866-225-1641 or umonline-help@umontana.edu.
- Accessibility issues with Moodle: Marlene Zentz at 406-243-6434 or marlene.zentz@umontana.edu.
- NetID and email accounts and general computer technical assistance: IT Central Help Desk, 8am-5pm: 406-243-4357
- General registration information: Contact the Registrar's Office in the Lommasson Center at 406-243-2995

Extra credit: There will be no extra credit assignments in this class apart from the community building activities.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism: All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. See: http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student\_conduct.php

Special Considerations and/or Disabilities: The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with Disability Services, please contact Disability Services in Lommasson Center 154 or 406.243.2243. I will work with you and Disability Services to provide an appropriate modification.

Office hours: One of the best ways to take full advantage of learning in this course is by coming to my office hours. I am anxious to guide you in your academic pursuits. Take advantage of the hours listed above or email me for an appointment if those times do not work for you. If you come for help with the course materials, please bring your notes and prepare your questions in advance.

Cell-phone, Tablet, and Laptop Use: The only people who can use cellphones or laptops in class on a regular basis are those who purchased the textbook in electronic form. However, they will be able to use those devices ONLY whenever we are working with the textbook. Checking email, texting, Facebook, etc. is distracting for you and for me, so it is not allowed in class. Note taking on the computer will be very difficult in this class since you will be using special symbols not readily available in computer keyboards (i.e. it's much faster by hand). At some point in class (when we have "Taller de Ensayos") you will be asked to bring your laptops if you don't want to print my feedback.
