COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course aims to equip students with the analytical and conceptual skills needed to understand gender issues regarding colonization, international development, and globalization. We will explore gender vis-à-vis various measures of development and theories of development and globalization, and then turn our focus to selected issues in gender and international development. This is a core course for the International Development Studies (IDS) minor, an optional course for the Inequality and Social Justice and Rural and Environmental Change emphases in the Sociology Department, and a content course for the Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies major.

Learning Goals:
1. Students will develop a sociological perspective on gender and use it to investigate processes, programs, and outcomes of colonization, economic and social development, and globalization.
2. Students will be able to describe and critique commonly used concepts, measures, and indicators of development.
3. Students will be able to explain the evolution of theories on women, men, gender, and development and critique various theories of women, gender, men, and development.
4. Students will be able to articulate and analyze selected issues related to gender and development.
5. Students will be able to explain and critique theories of gender and globalization, particularly those related to the labor force and migration.
6. Students will be able to write a critical analysis on a topic related to gender and colonization, development or globalization.
7. Students will be able to give a dynamic and articulate oral presentation on a topic related to gender and colonization, development, or globalization and articulately answer questions from classmates and the professor regarding their presentation.

Students’ performance will be evaluated based on three exams, one book analysis, one research paper and power point presentation, reading questions, and class participation, preparation, and attendance.
BASIC NEEDS STATEMENT

Any student who faces challenges securing food or housing, and believes that this could affect their performance in this course, is urged to contact any or all of the following campuses resources:

Food Pantry Program

UM offers a food pantry that students can access for emergency food. The pantry is open on Tuesdays from 9 to 2, on Fridays from 10-5. The pantry is located in UC 119 (in the former ASUM Childcare offices). Pantry staff operate several satellite food cupboards on campus (including one at Missoula College). For more information about this program, email umpantry@mso.umt.edu, visit the pantry’s website (https://www.umt.edu/uc/food-pantry/default.php) or contact the pantry on social media (@pantryUm on twitter, @UMPantry on Facebook, um_pantry on Instagram).

ASUM Renter Center

The Renter Center has compiled a list of resources for UM students at risk of homelessness or food insecurity here: http://www.umt.edu/asum/agencies/renter-center/default.php and here: https://medium.com/griz-renter-blog. Students can schedule an appointment with Renter Center staff to discuss their situation and receive information, support, and referrals.

TRiO Student Support Services

TRiO serves UM students who are low-income, first-generation college students, or have documented disabilities. TRiO services include a textbook loan program, scholarships and financial aid help, academic advising, coaching, and tutoring. Students can check their eligibility for TRiO services online here: http://www.umt.edu/triosss/apply.php#Eligibility.

Student Advocacy Resource Center

The Student Advocacy Resource Center (SARC) provides free and confidential support to survivors of sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, hate crimes, harassment, or other forms of discrimination. Its services include counseling as well as medical, legal, and academic advocacy. SARC is a confidential resource – contacting us does NOT mean that you are making a report to law enforcement or Title IX. You deserve to be safe, supported, and treated with care and respect. We also offer help to your friends, family, or partners. SARC is located in Curry Health Center, Room 108. Please visit us or call our office at 243-4429. Advocates are available on the 24-hour support line (406) 243-6559.

TEXT:

All students should purchase the following book:

Orwell, George. 1934. Burmese Days. (Any edition or publisher is acceptable)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Moodle:

Course readings, review sheets, and announcements will be posted on the Moodle System. In addition, for most lectures, I will post the most important charts and graphs as Power Point files on Moodle. You can access Moodle for this course by clicking on the Moodle link in Cyberbear, and then finding the class by my last name (Sobieszczyk) or SOCI 471. Go to any computer lab on campus or print from home if you have the necessary file readers and computer programs. Students who miss a lecture should be sure to print relevant charts and graphs from lectures, review class announcements, and obtain the class notes from the missed lecture from a fellow classmate.

Classroom Environment:
I will respect you by dismissing class on time each day. In return, please show your respect for me and your fellow class members by coming to class on time, refraining from chatting, reading newspapers, texting, web surfing, or otherwise disrupting class. If you need to leave class early, please let me know before class begins so that I don’t worry about you! Be sure to turn off your cell phone when you come to class. If I catch you texting or using a computer for something other than taking notes, I will confiscate your device for the remainder of the class period and dock you 3 points towards your participation grade to get it back.

We will be talking about some sensitive and potentially controversial issues this term. Please treat each other and each other's ideas respectfully. Keep in mind that the University of Montana forbids discrimination on the basis of ethnicity, race, religion, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability.

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct, including plagiarism and copying another student's paper or exam, is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor, which will be failing the assignment or exam or, for repeat offenses, failing the course, and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review on-line at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php

Attendance, Quizzes, and Participation (5%)
I expect students to attend each class and to be on time. If you are habitually absent or tardy, your grade will be lowered. Attendance will generally be worth 1 point per day, unless there are discussions or other group work (see schedule, below), in which case, it will be worth 2 points per day. Tardiness or leaving the class early without an appropriate excuse will cause you to lose 0.5 points from the day's attendance score. I am aware that from time to time, students may have to miss class. Acceptable excuses for missed classes include a doctor's note, a judge's note, an absence due to an official UM activity such as a sport or a field trip (with documentation), or an obituary or funeral notice for the funeral of a family member. Other excuses will not be accepted.

I also expect you to complete assigned readings prior to the class for which they are assigned and to be prepared to discuss them with your peers in class. Several times during the semester, your participation and preparation for class will be evaluated with attendance, discussions, problem solving activities, quizzes, and/or other exercises. Keep in mind that if you miss a class, you may not make up missed class work, quizzes, or attendance, which ultimately lowers your grade. Together, your class participation, attendance, class activities, and quizzes will be worth 5 percent of your overall grade.

Citation quiz: Conducted at the beginning of class on 8/29/19. This short quiz will cover the Chicago citation method covered at the end of the syllabus and during the in-class citation workshop on 8/27/19. The quiz MAY NOT be made up, so be sure to come to class on time! It is part of your participation grade.

Reading Questions (15%)
This term you will be responsible for submitting at least 10 of the 16 reading question assignments, listed below in the schedule. If you wish, you may submit up to 12 sets of reading questions, in which case, I will drop the lowest score(s). All reading questions should be printed on a computer printer (double spaced, 12 point font) or hand written very neatly. For reading questions, be sure to cite your sources and provide a reference list for each using the Chicago (Turabian) citation guidelines attached at the end of the syllabus and discussed in class. The exact reference list entry for the readings is listed in the syllabus. Please save all graded reading questions in a folder so that you can review them prior to exams. Be sure that you write your own reading question responses to avoid plagiarism. If you have to miss the class for which a reading question assignment is due, please bring it to a class prior to the due date, drop it off in my mailbox before class, or send it to class with a friend; otherwise, it will be considered late. In a worst case scenario, if you have to miss a class, you may email a homework assignment to me in Word. Make sure to attach the document correctly; if I cannot open an attachment or if you forgot to attach the correct document, it will be considered late. All reading question assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date listed in the syllabus. Late reading questions and book response papers (discussed below) will be accepted for a period of 7 days after the original due date; however, assignments turned in later than the class period in which they were due will be lowered one letter grade from what they would otherwise have received. In other words, a reading question assignment that would originally have received an “A” will receive a “B.” All late assignments must be turned in by the last day of class.

Book Reaction Paper (10%)
Write an elegant, clear, correctly cited 6-7 page typed, double spaced paper on Burmese Days. The paper is due at the beginning of class on 9/17/19.

Research Paper and Power Point Presentation (15%)
Write a 10-15 page typed, double spaced research paper (not including references or cover page) and give a 15-20 minute power point presentation on an issue or problem related to some aspect of gender and colonialism, development, or globalization. You will need to make an appointment to meet with Dr. Sobie to discuss your topic prior to October 15 and briefly meet with Dr. Sobie a second time during the poster preparation period during class on 11/12/19 to discuss your progress on the paper and your power point presentations.

Exams (55%)
During the course, three exams will be given (2 regular exams and 1 final exam). Exams most likely will include multiple choice, short answer, and/or essay questions. Exams will ask you to think critically and synthesize arguments and will cover materials from course readings, lectures, discussions, presentations, and films. The exams will be non-cumulative, except to the extent that earlier materials inform later discussions or topics. Each will be weighted the same.

Reviewing for Exams
Before each exam, I will provide a study guide to highlight what will be covered on the exam.
Be sure to review all assigned chapters and readings, class notes, film notes, power point presentation notes, and the study guide before the exam. Also, feel free to meet with me during office hours or at an alternate appointment if you have questions.

Make up Exams
Students with documented health or legal issues or who have three or more final exams in one day may be allowed to take a make-up exam with prior notice and permission from the professor. Students should provide documentation and then schedule a make-up exam at a time convenient to the professor, either very soon before or no more than one week after the scheduled exam date. It will not be possible to make up exams more than a week after the scheduled exam date. Make up exams likely will be in an essay format. The make up for the final exam must be completed by 12/13/19.

Distribution of Course Grade
2 in-class exams and 1 final exam 55
Burmese Days Paper 10
Research Paper & Power Point Presentation 15
Reading Questions 15
Quizzes, attendance, in-class activities 5
TOTAL 100%

A plus / minus system of grading will be employed (e.g. 93+ = A, 90-92 = A-, 87-89 = B+, 83-86 = B, 80-82 = B- and so on). All materials (books, dvds) borrowed from Dr. Sobieszczyk must be returned by the final exam for the class or you will earn an ‘Incomplete,’ which will remain on your record until the materials are returned or replaced. If you are enrolled Pass/Not Pass, you must earn a C- or better to pass.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Office Hours
Please feel free to visit me during office hours. Generally, I will be available for a few minutes after class if you have a quick question. If you are unable to attend my scheduled office hours, you may arrange to meet me at a different time by appointment.
Students with Disabilities
Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. “Reasonable” means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. Please bring in the letter from DSS documenting your disability and accommodations by the end of the second week so that we can arrange for any warranted accommodations such as note takers and testing.

Extra Credit
From time to time, extra credit opportunities may appear. Attend and type up a 2-3 page paper about the film or lecture. The paper should include (a) a summary of the presenter's or film's main points and (b) a critique of the arguments (e.g. did you agree with the points; why/why not).

Study Groups
I recommend that you participate in study groups to discuss readings and review for exams. Students who meet together in study groups tend to do much better on homework assignments and exams than those who do not. Keep in mind that even if you meet in a study group to discuss an assignment, the work you turn in must be written individually, in your own words!

Reading/Assignment Schedule (subject to change)
Readings listed for a given date should be completed PRIOR to class as we will be covering them in class. Any assignments are due at the beginning of class on the date listed or they will be considered late. All films listed will be shown in class, so there is no need to watch them before coming to class. They are available either on reserve in Mansfield Library (ML) or in Dr. Sobie’s private DVD library (TS).

A. APPROACHING GENDER & GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT

Tuesday 8/27/19: Introduction to Course & Citation Workshop

No RQ today!
In-class citation quiz at beginning of class!
Tuesday 9/3/19: Conceptualizing Gender & Gender Relations: A Sociological Approach
RQ#1: In the reading assignment for today, Kimmel discussed the idea that gender is socially constructed. Write a paragraph explaining:
(1) what the "social construction of gender" means and (2) what this implies for us as we study gender and global development this term. Note: Be sure to cite your sources (see complete reference list entry in reading assignment above).

Thursday 9/5/19: Approaches to Development: A Brief Review
RQ#2: Consider Hopper’s chapter, “Theorizing Development.”
1. According to Hopper, what does the label “Third World” mean, and why is it problematic?
2. Based on your understanding of Hopper’s chapter, discuss two main differences between modernization theory and the structuralist approach to development.

Tuesday 9/10/19: The Mission of Colonization
Reading assignment: Orwell, George. 1934. Burmese Days. (various editions)
Please read the first half of the book for today. Please see reading questions posted on Moodle.
Movie Excerpt & Discussion: Race: The Power of an Illusion (ML)

Thursday 9/12/19: Colonization, Gender, and Development – Discussion of Burmese Days
Reading assignment: Orwell, George. 1934. Burmese Days. Please read the second half of the book for today and be prepared to discuss it in class. Please see reading questions posted on Moodle.

Tuesday 9/17/19 Women’s Critiques of Measurements of Development & Economic Progress
Orwell paper due at the beginning of class.

Thursday 9/19/19: Why isn’t gender in development theory? Early Attempts to Bring in Women – WID, WAD, & WED Approaches
RQ#3: Consider Hopper's chapter, “Gender and Development.”
1. Briefly describe the main features of the Women in Development (WID) approach.
2. Now briefly describe the main features of the Women and Development (WAD) approach.

Tuesday 9/24/19: Ecofeminisms: A Focus on Wangari Maathai

RQ#4:
1. According to Momsen (2010), some ecofeminists associate women with nature. What might such an association imply? Why do some researchers consider this association to be problematic?
2. What does Shiva (1993, 168) mean when she writes that women have been the “custodians of biodiversity?”

Thursday 9/26/19: GAD & Male Bias in Development Perspectives

RQ#5:
1. Briefly discuss two lessons that this Bedouin case study provides for development practitioners trying to “do” gender and development projects.
2. What does Elson mean by “male bias in development?”

Tuesday 10/1/19: Exam #1

Thursday 10/3/19: Gender Mainstreaming, Part 1

RQ#6:
1. Based on your understanding of Rao’s article, discuss why mainstreaming gender into development projects in Sri Lanka didn’t really work.
2. According to Rao, why might it be important to consider men and gender relations when trying to economically empower women?
Tuesday 10/8/19: Gender Mainstreaming, Part 2 (Students read assigned article and work in teams to prepare presentation summarizing their article & discussing implications of the article’s main points for rest of class)
No RQ today but be prepared to work with your team to summarize & discuss implications of your assigned article and share with the rest of class.

Thursday 10/10/19: Refocusing on Men in International Development
RQ#7:
1. Based on your understanding of Jacobsen’s chapter, discuss two reasons why development researchers and practitioners should consider men’s issues in development.
2. Do you think there is any risk that refocusing on men’s issues in development will lead to a reduction of attention and/or funding for women's issues in development? Discuss.

B. ISSUES IN GENDER & INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Tuesday 10/15/19: Gender Issues in Education
RQ#8:
1. Based on your understanding of the article by Global Campaign for Education (GCE), discuss why GCE argues that we must focus funding and policy attention on girls’ education.
2. Think back to the article by Jacobsen assigned for 10/8. Is it sufficient to focus on increasing girls’ education, or do we also need to include boys? Discuss.
Deadline for meeting with Dr. Sobie to discuss your research topic.

Thursday 10/17/19: Gender Issues in Reproduction and Health
Reading assignment: Kristof, Nicholas D. and Sheryl WuDunn, 2010. "Maternal Mortality—One Woman a Minute," "Why Do Women Die in Childbirth?,” and "Family Planning and the 'God Gulf.'" In Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide, 93-
RQ#9:
1. Based on the assigned readings from Half the Sky, discuss why so many women in the Global South die during childbirth.
2. Based on your understanding of today’s readings, briefly explain the ways that education might impact maternal mortality.

Tuesday 10/22/19: Gender and Livelihoods: Unintended Consequences of Projects Focused on Women

RQ#10:
1. Based on the assigned reading, discuss how women’s increased role in providing household income has impacted the women.
2. Now discuss how women’s increased role in providing household income has impacted the men in their lives and the negative impacts on women that have resulted.

Thursday 10/24/19: Gender and the Promise of Micro-Credit, Part 1

Reading assignment: None

No RQ today.

Tuesday 10/29/19: Gender and the Promise of Micro-Credit, Part 2

Reading assignment:

RQ#11:
1. Based on your understanding of the article by Rahman, explain why the Grameen Bank’s plan to empower women through access to microcredit doesn’t necessarily empower women.
2. Based on your understanding of the article by Green and Bylander, briefly explain how microfinance loans may be linked to land dispossession in Cambodia.
Thursday 10/31/19: Gender Issues: Excerpts from Half the Sky
Reading assignment: None  No RQ today

Tuesday 11/5/19: Exam #2

Thursday 11/7/19: Globalization & Gender
RQ#12:
1. Based on Goode (2006), discuss how global media has impacted girls in Fiji and why this is important.
2. According to Connell (2012), what are the “masculinities of conquest and settlement” and how did they impact gender relations in the colonized societies?

Tuesday 11/12/19: Poster Preparation Day (Undergraduate Students) and In-Class Meetings on Research Papers and Presentations (Graduate Students)

Thursday 11/28/19: THANKSGIVING BREAK – NO CLASS!

Tuesday 12/3/19: Gender and Issues in International Migration
RQ#16:
1. According to Ehrenreich and Hochschild (2012), what are two reasons why women from less industrialized countries might want to work as a nanny in a more industrialized country?
2. Based on your understanding of Parennas (2010), briefly discuss two problems arising from Filipinas’ attempt to mother transnationally.

Thursday 12/5/19: Graduate Student Power Point Presentations & Course Conclusion

Wednesday 12/11/19: FINAL EXAM from 10:10-12:10 in our regular classroom

CITATIONS & PLAGIARISM
To avoid plagiarism you MUST cite your sources if you use a direct quotation, statistic, table, map, chart, or idea that is not common knowledge taken from course readings, lectures, movies, websites, or another source. Passing off someone else’s work as your own (plagiarizing), even unintentionally, violates the university’s code of academic conduct and will result in serious consequences. Citations for direct quotations and statistics MUST include a page number. Please see me if you have any questions about citations or plagiarism.

Forms of Citations
For this class, please use the Chicago method of citation (detailed below). For the Chicago Style of Citation, two forms of citation are permitted. These are (1) the traditional method of footnotes with a bibliography and (2) the now generally favored method of parenthetical references with a reference list at the end of the paper or poster. This guide follows the second, parenthetical reference method. Titles of works cited should be italicized.

Parenthetical References (Turabian, Section 10)
In the parenthetical reference system recommended in this guide, authors' names and dates of publication are given in parentheses within the running text or at the end of block quotations, and correspond to a list of works cited which is placed at the end of the paper. This list is arranged alphabetically by author's family names and chronologically within lists of works by a single author. It can be called "References."

Below, I detail what your references in the text of your poster and your homework assignments should look like.

A. Parenthetical reference in which you use the author's name in the sentence:

B. Parenthetical reference following a quotation for a quotation less than 2 type-written lines long, without the author's name used in the sentence:

Steinbeck is an imaginative writer who sought to breach "the narrow constraints of conventional language" (Huggins 2002, 180). His is the finest example of this type of writing.

C. If your quotation is more than two type-written lines, then you should indent it uniformly and single space it (with double spacing between rest of the text and the indented, single-spaced quotation):
Labor migrants who go abroad through unauthorized channels tend to increase their risks of being exploited, though there is some possibility for gaining redress. As noted in the 1980 Thai Labor Code,

Those who deceive others by claiming that they have the ability to find them employment abroad or can send them abroad for training and ask for money or gifts or other benefits from the person they are deceiving must be punished with imprisonment of between three and ten years, a fine of between U.S. $1,622 and $5,405, or both (Damrong and Thipin 1985, 37).

Clearly, according to the code, migrants who use or attempt to use an unauthorized mode of recruitment have a limited recourse for obtaining redress from their recruiters.

Examples
The following sets of examples illustrate parenthetical reference (PR) forms for use in your text and corresponding reference list (RL) entries for use in your reference lists.

Book, Single Author
PR:  (Franklin 1985, 54)

Book, Two or Three Authors
PR:  (Lynd and Lynd 1929, 67)

Book, More than Three Authors
PR:  (Greenberger and others 1974, 50)

Chapter in a Book
PR:  (Taylor 2006, 505)
Worth Publishers.

Article in an Academic Journal
PR:  (Jackson 1979, 180)

Article in a Magazine or Newspaper
PR:  (Weber 1985, 42)

Electronic (On-Line) Documents
PR:  (Baker and Hunstead 1995)

These are documents available from a website. Note that articles obtained from an on-line search engine but that are in a book or journal should be cited using those methods, NOT as electronic documents. For electronic documents, if no author is provided, please list the article in your in-text citation using the first three words of its title followed by three dots and the year of publication. In the reference list, again, list the article by the title of the article.

Films, DVDs, and Videorecordings
PR:  (DeNonno 1985)

Lectures or Guest Speakers
PR:  (Sobieszczyk 2018)
