Overview
The class is designed to be an introduction to fiction, focusing on the reading and interpretation of short stories and novels, especially with reference to their themes and internal forms.

How Work Will Be Posted Each Week
I will post assignments by 12:00 pm (noon) on Monday each week. Unless otherwise noted, you will have until 11:00 am the following Monday to complete that week’s assignment, usually a post to a Discussion Board.

Readings and Films
Please purchase copies of the books on the reading list, either at the UM bookstore or from another provider of your choice. I recommend that you rent the movies rather than purchase them. All of the movies can be rented from Amazon.

Books
- The Vintage Book of Contemporary American Short Stories—Tobias Wolff, ed.
- The Coast of Chicago—Stuart Dybek
- Housekeeping—Marilynne Robinson
- We Have Always Lived in the Castle—Shirley Jackson
- True Grit—Charles Portis

Discussion Boards
I will post a Discussion Board prompt almost every week. You must respond to the prompt and to at least two other student postings each week. Please post thoughtful, thorough responses to the prompts and to each other’s posts. In total, there will be 10 Discussion Boards, each graded out of ten points for a total of 100 points. You will have an opportunity to make up only one missed Discussion Board. I recommend that you not miss Discussion Boards. This will be discussed in more detail below.

Your response to the week’s prompt should be a minimum of 500 words and should demonstrate that you’ve read the week’s assignment closely. The goal each week should be to write a thorough, interesting post. Substantiate your remarks by referring specifically to events in the story you’re writing about. You must quote from the story at least once in your response.

Your responses to two other students’ posts need not be as lengthy as your response to the prompt, but these responses should not be cursory, either. You must be polite when you respond to each other’s posts. I hope it goes without saying that insults and rude remarks are impermissible. However, that does not mean you must agree with each other. It is OK, indeed it is recommended, that when you write to each other you invite your classmates to consider new things about the story. Posts in which we merely pat each other on the back are unlikely to lead to a deeper understanding of the story.

Please Note the Following Exception

For the first week of class there will be two Discussion Boards rather than one. The first of these will ask you to introduce yourself to the class. Please write a post that is similar to my introduction. You do not need to respond to each other’s introduction posts. Please do respond to others’ posts for the second prompt. Your introduction post will not be graded. The other discussion board for this week will be graded out of ten points.

Formal Papers

There will be four formal papers, each of which should be between 1,000 and 2,000 words. Specific ranges for word counts will be noted on the individual assignments. Prompts for the papers will arise out of Discussion Board conversations. Each paper will ask you to respond to the class readings. I will post paper assignments at least two weeks before each paper is due. I will post guidelines and formatting instructions (these will be simple and straightforward) when I post the assignment for the first paper. Each of the formal papers will be graded out of 100 points.

Formal Papers will be due on the following dates:

- Paper One: Week of Monday, February 22 (due at the end of Week 5)
- Paper Two: Week of Monday, March 14 (due at the end of Week 8)
- Paper Three: Week of Monday, April 18 (due at the end of Week 13)
- Paper Four: Week of Monday, May 9 (due at the end of Final Exam Week)

Final Grade

In total, there will be a maximum of five hundred points awarded for the semester: ten discussion boards for ten points each (100 total points) and four formal papers for 100 points each (400 total points).

Discussion Boards: 20 percent of final grade
Each of Four Formal Papers: 20 percent (4 x 20% = 80% of final grade)

Grading Scale

This course will graded with traditional letter grades A-F. I will also use + (plus) and – (minus) ratings within each of the letter ranges when issuing final grades. The grading scale is as follows:

- A: 95 – 100
• A-: 90 – 94
• B+: 87 – 89
• B: 83 – 86
• B-: 80 – 82
• C+: 77 – 79
• C: 73 – 76
• C-: 70 – 72
• D+: 67 – 69
• D: 63 – 66
• D-: 60 – 62
• F: Below 60

Late and Insubstantial Work (Formal Papers)
You must submit each of the formal papers (and those papers must meet the prescribed word count) in order to receive credit for the course. If your paper does not fall within the designated range of the word count, the paper will be returned to you without a grade and you will be asked to resubmit an appropriately thorough paper. Please contact me in advance if you have difficulty making any of the deadlines listed above. If you give me enough lead time, we will likely be able to make an arrangement that suits your needs and gives you an opportunity to produce your best work.

Late and Insubstantial Work (Discussion Boards)
Responses to Discussion Board prompts must be posted by the prescribed deadline. Grades for Discussion Boards that fall below the prescribed minimum word count (500 words) may be reduced by as many as three points from the maximum possible score for the post. If you miss the deadline for a Discussion Board, you will receive a 0/10 for that week’s Discussion Board.

At the end of the semester, I will post an extra Discussion Board to give you an opportunity to clear your lowest Discussion Board score from your record. In other words, there will be one make-up Discussion Board. Thus, you need not worry if you become overwhelmed for one reason or another at some point in the semester and miss a post. You can make it up later. However, please be aware that regularly missing Discussion Boards is the surest way to impair your standing in the class and to lower your final grade.

Contacting Me
Please feel free to email me any questions you may have regarding any aspect of the course. My email is joe.campana@mso.umt.edu. I check email regularly. You can count on a response within 48 hours. If you do not get a response from me, it is very likely that your email did not get through. This happens at least once a semester, sometimes more. If it happens to you, please send me a text message at the Skype address below. I will then email you from my UM account and your emails to me should then get through the university’s filter. I apologize in advance if you encounter any difficulty of this sort.
Please do not try to contact me through the quickmail link on the course web site or any other any other messaging links you may find there. For the sake of organization and efficiency I manage all university correspondence through my UM inbox (joe.campana@mso.umt.edu). Do not contact me at my gmail address. That is a personal account that I reserve for my affairs outside of the university.

I am currently working from Egypt and will be out of Missoula for the entire semester. If you would like to meet to discuss an issue in more depth we can arrange to speak via Skype. Please do not hesitate to arrange a meeting if you wish to discuss your work on one of the formal papers. I can be found on Skype at joseph.campana. (The period at the end of my last name is not part of my Skype address; it signifies the end of the sentence.)

University-wide Program-level Writing Assessment
This course requires an electronic submission (via Moodle) of an assignment stripped of your personal information to be used for educational research and assessment of the university’s writing program. Your paper will be stored in a database. A random selection of papers will be assessed by a group of faculty and staff using a rubric developed from the following writing learning outcomes:

- Compose written documents that are appropriate for a given audience or purpose;
- Formulate and express opinions and ideas in writing;
- Use writing to learn and synthesize new concepts;
- Revise written work based on constructive feedback;
- Find, evaluate, and use information effectively;
- Begin to use discipline-specific writing conventions;
- Demonstrate appropriate English language usage.

This assessment in no way affects either your course grade or your progression at the university. Please carefully consider the one assignment you choose to submit. The assignment should be one you have revised after receiving feedback. Plan to submit the assignment (via Moodle) within one week after the course ends. You will get a number of reminders over the course of the semester.

University Policy on Academic Honesty
All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review through a link posted at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php.

University Plagiarism Warning
Plagiarism is the representing of another’s work as one’s own. It is a particularly intolerable offense in the academic community and is strictly forbidden. Students who plagiarize may fail the course and may be remanded to Academic Court for possible suspension or expulsion. (See Student Code section of the University catalogue.)
Students must always be very careful to acknowledge any kind of borrowing that is included in their work. This means not only borrowed wording but also ideas. Acknowledgment of whatever is not one’s own original work is the proper and honest use of sources. Failure to acknowledge whatever is not one’s own original work is plagiarism.
