

Kymerly MacEwan

kymberly.macewan@umconnect.umt.edu

Published Works

Lunacy for Profit: The Economic Gains of ‘Native-Only’ Lunatic Asylums in the Bengal Presidency, 1850s-1870s, Journal of South Asian Studies, (2014)

Education

University Of Montana PhD Student Moser-McKinney Fellow	August 2021-
University of Colorado at Colorado Springs MA in History	2012
Theses: “Lunacy for Profit: The Economic Gains of ‘Native-Only’ Lunatic Asylums in British Colonial India, 1850-1870” “The Heroic Epic of National Socialism: Creating Ideology Through the Requisition of the Great Altar at Pergamon ” “Turning Toward Death: The Medievals’ Terrestrial Treatment of Death in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries”
University of Colorado at Colorado Springs BA Cum Laude in History With High Honors	2009
Pikes Peak Community College AA in History	2008
Work Experience
Western State Colorado University, Gunnison, CO Lecturer in History	2015-2018
University of Colorado at Colorado Springs Lecturer in History	2012-2014
CSU-Pueblo Lecturer in History	2014-2015
Pikes Peak Community College, Colorado Springs, CO Lecturer in History	2012-2015
United States Navy Aviation Ordnanceman, Third Class Petty Officer	1998 - 2001

Previous Courses

- History of Medicine
- The History of Brews: Coffee, Tea, and Alcohol
- End of Days: Late Medieval Europe
- History of China
- History of Southeast Asia
- The French Revolution(s)
- History of India
- Medieval Japan
- Modern Japan
- History of the Irish and Scots
- The Vikings
- The Culture of Nazi Germany

Certification and Memberships

Phi Alpha Theta

Online Instructor Certification

Key Skills Acquired

- Researched, designed, and taught over 20 separate classes
- Served on 2 curriculum committees
 - Developed effective strategies to standardize, design classes, and disseminate information
- Collaborated with university librarians to gather essential research sources
- Maintained top evaluation marks from students and departmental heads
- Supervised individual student research while maintaining high levels of standards and requirements